Quilting is a traditional skill that is making a comeback! Covering both machine and hand quilting, Idiot's Guides: Quilting includes hundreds of eye-catching, step-by-step color photos that will turn any novice into an expert quilter in no time. The book also includes more than 20 sample projects to reinforce quilting skills and to spark creativity.

About the Author Jennifer Fulton is a long-standing and leading member of the Quilters Guild of Indianapolis. She has served the Guild as President, Vice-President, Quilt Retreat Chair, and Co-Chair for Quilt Show Registration, and is a member of multiple quilting bees. For over 17 years, Jennifer has made many beautiful quilts for her family, friends, and charity, creating many original quilting designs. She has taught children and adults alike to quilt.
