Great Beginner BookBy Safira925What I like most about this book is that it presents the basics of scrapbooking in a well-written, simplistic format. All of the essential elements that experienced adult scrappers use are introduced page-by-page on a beginner's level. There are also many lettering and die cut examples to use, as well as simple lay outs to jump start one's creativity. i would not classify this as a "kids" book, but rather a primer on the art of scrapbooking. Well written and very colorful (something kids of all ages can appreciate!).Cris Cunningham5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. A great book to start scrapbooking with.By R. L. HawkinsThere were many things I enjoyed about this book. It gives many clear and not cluttered examples. It is very easy to understand along with providing different uses for the basic scrapbooking supplies. The pictures were great and I would not classify this as a childrens book either.

"Scrapbooking for Kids(ages1-100)a great introductory book on scrapbooking for every age! It features tools, materials techniques and page ideas on every page.

About the AuthorJill Haglund became an overnight success with "The Complete Guide to Scrapbooking", which sold 10,000 copies overnight. Once called the scrapbook "guru", she is now into all types of papercrafts. Jill's newest tile include "Vintage Collage for Scrapbooking" available now. Her work has been on display near New York City under glass shadowboxes at the Exposures Corporate office. She has done project sheets for Michaels Crafts Stores, Eileen's Creative Living T.V. Show, Target ads, and more. Jill has been involved with week-long workshops including scrapbooking, cardmaking and rubberstamping classes for trade shows such as The Hobby Industry Association and The Great American Scrapbook Trade Show. She has done grandopenings at Exposures and Cord Camera and Michaels Craft Stores. Over the years Jill has done classes monthly at Michaels Craft's Store and Barnes and Nobles Booksellers. She is very excited about her next new opportunity to teach in Tuscany, Italy. This worksop called A Journey in Vintage Collage and will be a class on the finding, making and using of vintage items and ephemera through collage style in journals, small scrapbooks and cards. The classes are set for May and Sept 2005. Jill's newest books venturing into papercrafts other then scrapbooking- " Creating Vintage Cards" and "Artists Creating with Photos" will be available in January 2005. She features many artists in these books and the diversersity of artwork make this a must have for all paper crafters.
