A MUST HAVE!By joie de vivreI'd say I have 20 scrapbooking idea books, and this, by far, is the best one. Rebecca, a Creating Keepsakes Hall-of-Famer speaks from the heart, and teaches US to scrapbook and journal from the heart. Instead of just describing a photo or group of photos, we should write more about the person. Also it is not recommended that you scrapbook in chronological order. That was very liberating for me! You just HAVE to read it. My review can't do it justice. I would suggest that you have a box of Kleenex handy when you DO read it. I HIGHLY recommend this book.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Making Memories TimelessBy Lois DershemIf you buy no other book on scrapbooking and preserving your family's life's story or your own, buy this book! Sower's approach to scrapbooking will insure that the content of these precious books will be appreciated and treasured forever. It's not the crafting, great embellishments and layout design that makes a scrapbook - it's the content!

If you could leave your loved ones one package that contained everything you want them to remember, what would be inside? Let Rebecca Sower, Creating Keepsakes Hall of Famer and "Sharing the Story" columnist, help you pinpoint just what matters most to you, then show you practical ways to incorporate these sentiments on your family's scrapbook pages. With Rebeccas nostalgic narrative, poignant journaling ideas, 50 step-by-step technique sidebars and over 200 layouts to inspire you, Scrapbooking Lives Little Treasures is an inspirational resource you'll refer to again and again as you scrapbook life's big and little moments.
